Serial No.	Date	Order with signature of Chairperson/Members.
	12/11/2025	This is an appeal filed by the appellant against the Order (No. HUB/04/2025-26) dated July 30, 2025 whereby the appellant was held responsible to make payment of Rupees 13,677,611/- On the last date of hearing, the parties expressed their willingness to reconcile the difference and submit a report in this behalf. Today, the learned counsel for the parties Mr. Muhammad Nauman Rafiq, ITP for the Appellant and Barrister Wasil Jan for the Respondent appeared. Heard at some length. The learned counsel for the Appellant states that there are various irregularities and discrepancies in the order impugned, which are evident from the record, therefore the matter may be remanded back to the Learned Commissioner. When the Learned counsel for the Respondent was confronted with this legal and factual aspect of the matter, he candidly conceded and fairly admitted that there are some inherent defects and typographical mistakes in the order impugned, therefore it would be appropriate to remand the matter to the Learned Commissioner for rehearing, reconsideration of the relevant documents as per the Law. Not resisted by the Learned counsel for the Appellant. At this stage we intentionally avoid to make any observations in respect of merits and demerits of the case, lest it cause any prejudice to the parties: With the consent of the Learned counsel for the parties the matter is hereby remanded to the Learned Commissioner with the directions for decision afresh purely on merits, after affording a fair opportunity of hearing and leading evidence to the parties without being influenced of the earlier order or observations, if any, made by this Tribunal. The Appellant is also directed to furnish relevant documents before the Learned Commissioner and copy thereof to the opposite counsel in advance within 15 days. Similarly, after receipt of the relevant documents the Learned Commissioner shall decide the matter

within a month. Copy of the order shall be provided to the Registrar of this Tribunal for our perusal in chambers.

With the above, the Appeal stands disposed-of.

Orders Accordingly.
